

WHAT IS THE “ULTIMATE REMEDY”? ©

Authored by PAC info@pacinlaw.org

What most all people fail to understand is that they are part of the Body Politic that is formed under the Fourteenth Amendment. Such people are deemed resident persons under the current statutory construction. As all the States in the United States are deemed municipal corporations, anyone that is a citizen is going to be subject to such law.

Now, if we go back in reference to the Fourteenth Amendment most need to understand that the amendment was not lawfully ratified. This factor is due to the governments of the South being physically removed the having puppet governments installed by the United States. We must note that the “current government” appears to follow the United States Constitution; moreover, note that nothing was repealed after the Fourteenth Amendment usurpation took place. This sets forth the principle that the original system still is in affect, it is just not being followed. With this in mind, the “insurgents” are saying that they uphold the United States Constitution. Such notwithstanding, the “insurgents” are allowing—as in “had” allowed—the Fourteenth Amendment to exist; this is in direct violation of Article V ¹ of the Constitution for the United States of America.

In another sense, how can you remove half the lawful states that may ratify amendments to the Federal Constitution and still have the 14th Amendment be valid?

The simple answer is: You Cannot.

So what is the Ultimate Remedy?

In short, one has to agree to this usurpation. To do so this is done by taking benefits under the Fourteenth Amendment “citizen of the United States” status,² and also by failing to denounce what they have done to the original political system.³

With all aforementioned factors stated, there is a way to claim your de jure political rights under the original constitutional system. To do this would include claiming your rightful national status: This is the Ultimate Remedy.

1 ARTICLE V: “The Congress, whenever two thirds of both Houses shall deem it necessary, shall propose Amendments to this Constitution, or, on the Application of the Legislatures of two thirds of the several States, shall call a Convention for proposing Amendments, which, in either Case, shall be valid to all Intents and Purposes, as Part of this Constitution, when ratified by the Legislatures of three fourths of the several States, or by Conventions in three fourths thereof, as the one or the other Mode of Ratification may be proposed by the Congress.”

2 Cujus est commodum ejus debet esse incommodum. He who receives the benefit should also bear the disadvantage. See also, the Ashwander Doctrine.

3 Invito beneficium non datur. No one is obliged to accept a benefit against his consent. But if he does not dissent he will be considered as assenting.

So, why is such principle considered the Ultimate Remedy? Well, it centers on a principle of law which revolves around SERVITUDE. In a prime example of this we can look to the Declaration of Independence, wherein it was stated:

“Governments are instituted by the consent of the governed.”

Also, maybe you heard of the principle “Taxation without Representation.”?

The main question is: Do you consent?
